

VILLA DESCRIPTIONS

Sangsuri Beach Villa 1

1.1	The 'One-Liner'	2
1.2	Short Description	2
1.3	Medium Description	2
1.4	Full Description	2

Sangsuri Beach Villa 2

2.1	The 'One-Liner'	4
2.2	Short Description	4
2.3	Medium Description	4
2.4	Full Description	4

Sangsuri Beach Villa 3

3.1	The 'One-Liner'	6
3.2	Short Description	6
3.3	Medium Description	6
3.4	Full Description	6

SANGSURI BEACH VILLA 1

1.1 The 'One-Liner'

Sangsuri Beach Villa 1 is the largest of our three villas. With its 6 double bedrooms – all with a breathtaking sea view – and a dorm for children, the villa offers accommodation for up to 20 guests.

1.2 Short Description

Sangsuri Beach Villa 1 is the largest of our three villas. With its 6 double bedrooms – all with a breathtaking sea view – and a dorm for children, the villa offers accommodation for up to 20 guests.

Direct access to the beach, the 22 m pool, the large lawns, the massage pavilion and many other facilities ensure that your stay at Sangsuri will be enjoyable and relaxing.

1.3 Medium Description

The largest of three magnificent villas that make up the Sangsuri estate on Koh Samui, Villa Sangsuri 1 is an expansive seven bedroom property built over a series of wide, lawned and landscaped terraces that step down to an undisturbed stretch of beach just north of the island's main tourist area, Chaweng.

Making full use of the dramatic, sloping cliffside location, the architect has created a supremely comfortable and luxurious tropical retreat that is essentially a private resort and therefore well suited to groups or large families.

The villa's multiple levels house comfortable bedroom pavilions with private sky gardens and sun terraces, all of which draw in calming views of the ocean and a picturesque, uninhabited offshore island known as Koh Matlang. The generous, furnished open-plan lounge and dining space folds open onto a fabulous 22 metre pool and steps lead from a wide beachside lawn directly onto the soft Samui sand.

Sangsuri Villa 1 is the perfect choice for a private wedding or celebration with two connected and equally expansive luxury villas located right next door. The estate can comfortably accommodate groups of 30 more guests and the property also features a dedicated 8-bunk children's dorm making it one of the island's top choice family holiday villas.

1.4 Full Description

(Text from 'Medium Description' plus text below:)

The Villa

An automated gate at the villa's roadside entrance opens onto a car park area and staff quarters with the villa's only two-storey accommodation occupying the top level of the grounds to the left. This building houses a multi-function room and comfortable AV room on the lower floor, the latter furnished with a sizeable sofa and wall mounted flatscreen TV with DVD, satellite channels and powerful sound system. The upper floor is home to a spacious and colourful children's dorm with comfortable, contemporary bunk beds for eight children and an ensuite bathroom with shower room and toilet. A guest or nanny's bedroom is directly opposite the dorm, also with its own bathroom, and all offer stunning views of the coast and ocean below.

From the upper level entrance, a series of steps lead down to five more expansive landscaped terraces housing the guest bedrooms and living pavilions. The next level down is backed by a tall planted wall and opens onto Bedrooms 4 and 5, both of which are surrounded by pebbled water features and boast private garden terraces with spectacular views and the choice of in or outdoor showers in the ensuite bathrooms.

Wide central stone steps then lead down to another bedroom level, where Bedrooms 2 and 3 both slide open onto their own covered terraces and lawns. Both bedrooms feature walk-in wardrobes and a choice of indulgent bathing options. Bedroom 3 opens onto an outdoor bath tub, Bedroom 2 onto an outdoor shower.

One more level down leads to the villa's open-plan lounge, dining space and double kitchen, all fronted by wood and glass doors that open onto a lawned terrace and generous seaview pool. The living space is furnished in a contemporary style with three comfortable sofas, a coffee table, as well as two dining tables that provide mealtime seating for up to 16 people. A resort style kitchen, breakfast area, built-in barbecue and covered, furnished relaxation sala – plus a separate guest bathroom – not only make this space an indulgent private lounge, but also an ideal venue for entertaining guests.

The villa's penultimate level houses the fabulous master suite, which also opens onto a private covered oceanview terrace and boast two bathrooms, one with shower, the other home to an indulgent standing bath-tub for a soothing sea view soak. From there, steps lead down to the oceanside lawn, furnished with sun loungers overlooking the beach. A high wall at one end features a built-in projector screen so the garden can be transformed into an outdoor cinema.

An open air shower allows guests to rinse off after a walk on the beach and massage sala completes the tropical scene, poised within earshot of the lapping waves for the ultimate in private relaxation.

Staying at the Villa

Villa Sangsuri 1 is an extravagant private resort hidden away in a stunning, peaceful beachside location. Guests can enjoy every possible private amenity and intelligent designs mean large groups have an appealing blend of communal and private spaces to explore. Serene ocean views are a constant pleasure and the villa is surrounded by colourful tropical flowers.

The villa's chic, contemporary design scheme is nicely balanced against a more rustic feel that includes thatched-roof bedroom pavillions and shuttered bathrooms. A harmonious balance is easily achieved between in and outdoor living as you wander between the various spaces and levels that make up this impressive and expansive residence. Days easily pass lazing by the pool or on the beach, punctuated by al fresco meals prepared to order by the villa's private chef.

Evenings are equally relaxed and appealing, with a wide choice of places to gather, socialise and dine under the stars, serenaded by the sound of the gentle sea, always just a stroll away and almost constantly in view. Children will be as content as their parents with a private beach to comb, a generous lawn to play on and of course the unique addition of their own dedicated dorm and TV den to hang out in, safely supervised day and night.

Villa Sangsuri 1 is perfect for weddings, anniversary gatherings, parties or just as the ideal place to spend quality time with friends or family in the comfort and privacy of a superlative private beachfront residence.

*remark Villa1 has Six bedrooms plus children's bunk room

 Images and descriptions depicted may include prices, features, furnishings, facilities, services and amenities that are subject to change at any time.

SANGSURI BEACH VILLA 2

2.1 The 'One-Liner'

With its open salon, dining room and kitchen, Sangsuri Beach Villa 2 is the ideal choice for guests who enjoy outdoor living.

2.2 Short Description

With its open salon, dining room and kitchen, Sangsuri Beach Villa 2 is the ideal choice for guests who enjoy outdoor living.

The 6 double bedrooms – all with spectacular sea view – offer high-class accommodation for the discerning guest. Upon request, one of the bedrooms can be converted into a dorm for four children.

Two swimming pools, an oversized jacuzzi, a beach front living, dining and BBQ area and many other facilities are available for the exclusive use of our guests.

2.3 Medium Description

Flanked by its two sister properties, Villa Sangsuri 2 is one of three stunning villas that make up the impressive Sangsuri Estate on Koh Samui.

The capacious 6-bedroom villa is designed as a series of enchanting, stand-alone living and sleeping pavilions set over four levels and spread through beautiful landscaped grounds overlooking a quiet stretch of beach just a short distance north of the island's main tourist centre, Chaweng.

The villa strikes a perfect balance between modern, ultra-stylish architectural designs and natural elegance, drawing on the striking beauty of the location with open-sided, thatched roof dining and lounge pavilions, glass walled bedrooms and slatted, sliding wooden shutter panels surrounding the dining pavillion and master suite. These deft touches ensure guests are truly immersed in the richness of the lush, tropical setting while at the same time cushioned in sophisticated modern luxury.

The villa's lower level, covered poolside lounge is the perfect space to wile away the day immersed in a good book with your favourite tunes piped through the villa's built-in speakers, or to recline on a daybed in front of a movie on the pull down cinema screen. More active souls will love the villa's two inviting ocean view swimming pools, while a huge beachside jacuzzi makes regular dips irresistible.

Mealtimes are also a memorable private pleasure, with a choice of al fresco dining spaces in which to enjoy delicious home cooked meals prepared by the villa's in-house chef. Guests wanting to work off all the good food can make use of the estate's on-site gym, fitted with top-end machines. Alternatively, a stroll or jog down the beach is rewarded with a close up view of the nearby uninhabited offshore island of Koh Matlang.

2.4 Full Description

(Text from 'Medium Description' plus text below:)

The Villa

An all but hidden remote controlled gate opens onto a private gravel driveway that serves both Villa Sangsuri 2 and Villa Sangsuri 3, with space for several cars to park and a designated area for the night security guard. The drive also leads to the villa's only multi-storey pavillion, which houses staff quarters upstairs and a spacious ground floor gym equipped with Life Fitness® equipment for cardio and muscle work.

A double guest bedroom occupies the ground floor of the same building and opens onto its own private, ocean view terrace with an on-suite bathroom to the rear. Stairs inside the bedroom connect to a basement level, which houses a spacious twin bedroom ideal for older children with its own walk-in wardrobe and ensuite shower.

From the upper level bedrooms, steps made of balinese stone descend around an old tree to the first of two expansive lawned and planted areas, backed by an attractive, planted wall. Two more bedroom suites occupy their own standalone bungalows at the rear of the spacious grounds. Bedroom 3 features two walk-in wardrobes and internal doors that slide open onto a planted, tropical bathroom. Bedroom 4 boasts a similar layout to Bedroom 3, but with the ensuite bathroom positioned to the rear of the bungalow. Both are beautifully furnished and decorated in subtle earth tones.

Also on the same level, paths cross water features in the lawned garden and connect to the kitchen, lounge and dining spaces, all of which occupy their own separate thatched roof pavilions. The lounge is furnished with a long cushioned sofa and day bed, the kitchen features a central island breakfast bar and both areas protected from the elements with automated blinds. The ocean view dining pavillion seats 8 to 10 guests and is surrounded on three sides by slatted wooded shutters that rotate to draw in the soothing ocean views.

Also on this level, an infinity edged plunge pool fronts the master bedroom pavilion, the latter sliding open on three sides to draw in the stunning views. The suite includes a generously sized double bedroom with additional oversized sofa, antique Balinese wooden carvings and striking original art, as well as ample built-in storage in a walk-in wardrobe area and a spacious ensuite bathroom. The master suite opens onto a private terrace to the rear, featuring a huge outdoor bathtub and a secluded private sun terrace with two sunbeds overlooking the beach.

Internal stairs lead directly down from inside the master suite to a sizeable day lounge area on the villa's lower level, also reached via steps next to the dining pavilion and positioned next to the villa's second, larger swimming pool (21 metres). The comfortable covered lounge area is furnished with a sofa and daybed poised for relaxed. There's a guest bathroom, a second kitchen and barbecue area in this part of the villa, that latter serving a 10-seater outdoor dining table on a terrace right next to the beach. The terrace extends along the beachfront and hosts a comfortable daybed with steps down into a huge beachside jacuzzi pool.

Bedroom 2 also occupies the villa's beachside terrace level and sits at the far end of the poolside garden. The room boasts sea views right from the bed and also offers guests a dual walk-in wardrobe and a bathroom its own with private garden.

Staying at Sangsuri Villa 2

The unique layout and designs at Sangsuri Villa 2 effortlessly bring together nature and contemporary luxury, allowing guests to spend the majority of their time outdoors enjoying the stunning vistas and soothing tropical surroundings, but also with every indulgence, comfort and convenience at their fingertips.

The efficient live-in staff take care of the details – everything from maintenance and repairs to special guest requests and recommendations – and a private chef is on hand to prepare delicious Thai and Western meals to be enjoyed in one of the many comfortable al fresco dining areas.

The beachside day lounge and swimming pool offer everything you could possibly need to pass lazy days enjoying island life to the full. It's perfectly possible to spend most of your time in this part of the villa; swimming and sunbathing during the day, then returning for evening cocktails, followed by a barbecue, and then relaxing in the lounge with a movie on the pull down projector screen. All this with the gentle sound of the lapping waves in the background.

The abundance of trees and flowers really adds to the pleasure of the stay, as do the many artefacts and collectables placed throughout the villa, which not only create a strong sense of location, but also cleverly bring a homely ambiance to the residence despite its open-plan layouts and considerable size.

The spacious, multi-level design of the villa also means it is easy for guests to balance communal and private holiday time. The private facilities and onsite services are second to none, the fact that the villas on the Sangsuri estate offer direct access to a quiet beach is a rare luxury in itself.

 Images and descriptions depicted may include prices, features, furnishings, facilities, services and amenities that are subject to change at any time.

SANGSURI BEACH VILLA 3

3.1 The 'One-Liner'

In its 5 double bedrooms, Sangsuri Beach Villa 3 offers comfortable accommodation for 10 to 14 guests.

3.2 Short Description

In its 5 double bedrooms, Sangsuri Beach Villa 3 offers comfortable accommodation for 10 guests. Upon request, the AV/TV room can be converted into an additional double bedroom or a dormitory for 4 children.

The 20 m infinity pool, the massage sala, the open-air and the indoor jacuzzi together with the swimming platform with direct access to the beach are just some of the facilities available for exclusive private use of our guests in Villa 3.

3.3 Medium Description

Occupying a peaceful tropical cliffside that steps gently down to an undisturbed beach just a short drive north of Koh Samui's main tourist town, Chaweng, Villa Sangsuri 3 is one of three spectacular private villas that together make up the Sangsuri Estate.

This stunning 5-bedroom villa is designed as a series of luxurious living and sleeping pavilions, set on four levels, and connected by stepped pathways spread through attractive landscaped grounds. The property overlooks a meditative bay that is home to the postcard-perfect offshore island of Matlang.

Villa Sangsuri 3 features an appealing choice of private and communal spaces for guests exclusive use. It is therefore perfectly suited to groups of friends or families looking to share the benefits of a personalised island holiday retreat, without ever feeling either cramped or restricted.

The lower level beachside spa is an indulgent inclusion, even for a luxury villa of this size, and the addition of private cinema room behind the lounge adds yet more appeal to the wide ranging facilities on offer.

Despite being one of the only luxury villa estates on Samui within easy reach of the many shops and nightlife options in Chaweng, Sangsuri Villa 3 and its neighbouring properties enjoy one of the most secluded and peaceful locations on the island.

The sheer size of the property and generous amount of private space available to guests, coupled with the fact that two or even all three villas can be rented together, also makes this one of the most attractive choices on the island for a private wedding, a group celebration or even a corporate retreat.

3.4 Full Description

(Text from 'Medium Description' plus text below:)

The Villa

An automated roadside gate opens onto a private drive with covered carport where steps from an arched entrance lead directly down to a wide, lawned garden adorned with flowering plants, mature trees and huge Balinese rocks filled with waterlilies.

Three double bedrooms occupy the upper level, with Bedroom 5 closest to the entrance, all but hidden in the trees. The quaint, very private double bedroom has its own ensuite bathroom and garden terrace from which steps leads directly down to the villa's main poolside living area.

On the same level, Bedroom 3 and Bedroom 4 are set in self-contained pavilions that sit either side of ornate, wide steps that descend through the centre of the property. Each of these two guest bedrooms is surrounded by pebbled water features and opens onto its own private sky garden. Bedroom 3 is to the left, and features an indoor bathroom with rainshower, plus an additional outdoor bath tub within a shuttered garden terrace. Bedroom 4 is a mirror image in terms of design, but without the additional bath tub space.

On the next level down, the villa's main living pavilions and master bedroom suite are positioned around a 23 metre seaview swimming pool. A furnished relaxation sala is also perched poolside for shaded repose, complete with a giant mirror to reflect the breathtaking natural surroundings.

The dining pavilion sits in a pavillion to the left of the garden and boasts an 10-seater dining table and breakfast bar, served by a fully equipped resort-style kitchen to the rear. The lounge sits to the right of this, with two oversized sofas positioned around a large wooden coffee table and folding wood and glass doors on three sides to draw in the views and warm sea breezes. Hidden behind the lounge is an enclosed, air-conditioned cinema room, furnished with sofas, armchairs and with pull down cinema screen with full digital entertainment system.

The master suite boasts high ceilings, wood and glass doors that open onto the pool and automated blinds on three sides for added privacy. A walk-in wardrobe and ensuite shuttered bathroom guarantee total indulgence. In addition to the poolside terrace, the room also opens onto its own private balcony overlooking the beach and sea. Stairs inside and outside the master suite connect to Bedroom 2 on the lowest level of the villa. This is a spacious double suite with a walk-in dressing area, ensuite bathroom room and tall glass doors that slide open onto the beachside garden.

The lawned, oceanside garden is decorated with stunning water features and fountains that flank a covered, outdoor spa area with massage beds and jacuzzi. Balinese wooden totums stand guard and the attached beachside sun terrace features loungers and sunbrellas, inviting total relaxation.

Staying at Villa Sangsuri 3

For groups or families looking to combine quality time together with indulgent private moments cushioned by nature, Sangsuri Villa 3 is a rare discovery. A clever combination of contemporary luxury and natural elegance means guests can lose themselves in the peace and green of the surroundings without missing out on modern comfort or luxury.

A range of holiday pleasures can be neatly and easily combined in a single day: lounging by the pool, drifting into a gentle massage while encircled by water features or retreating to the air-conditioned comfort of the cinema room to lose yourself in film.

The smiling staff take care of the details and with meals prepared to order by a private chef and a spacious dining room in which to gather for the feast, the urge to explore the menus at the restaurants in nearby Chaweng may quickly fade.

The space and size offered by the property and its grounds make Villa Sangsuri 3 an appealing choice for weddings or other celebratory stays, especially because the villa can be rented along with its neighbouring residences for the ultimate private gathering of friends and family.

 Images and descriptions depicted may include prices, features, furnishings, facilities, services and amenities that are subject to change at any time.